

RM-10620 is flawed in that just because a licensed Novice has been licensed for 20 yrs., doesn't mean that he/she has the knowledge required for the higher class license ! Their knowledge can be limited to a small area of the art. The Novice might have been inactive as well. They must be examined to prove their proficiency in the art of the day.